

WEEKEND REVIEW APRIL 22, 2017

What a beautiful sunny day. I hope you are all out enjoying it.

FIELD DAY

With the end of the year coming up, our Field Day Cluster is busy planning for the upcoming Field Day. The planning and preparation has brought about a need for donations to cover the expenses that come with Field Day, including the rental of inflatables, prizes for the games, and treats. If you are willing to make monetary or item donations to help with Field Day, please e-mail Mr. Christensen at cchristensen@ascentutah.org

SILENT AUCTION

Our art students will be holding a silent art auction April 24th through May 1st for the purpose of purchasing tabletop easels and if there are enough proceeds, table top pottery wheels for pottery making. Each student's masterpiece will have a number. Just fill out the provided bid slip and place your bid into the can on the table. There is a $10.00 minimum bid. You will be notified at the end of the auction if you have the winning bid. THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF OUR STUDENTS AND OF OUR ART PROGRAM and BE SURE TO TAKE THE TIME TO ENJOY OUR ART DISPLAY!

LIBRARY UPDATE

March Madness has ended in the library. Of the top 64 books that checked out of the library this year, Michael Vey: The Prisoner of Cell 25 has been voted the best. It beat out Shiloh for this top spot. The Lightning Thief and Smile also deserve to be mentioned as they round out the Final Four titles in our March Madness.

Harry Potter Month is still going. Continue to read and log your minutes. Once you hit that 200 mark, get it signed and to Mrs. Erni. Returning your completed reading log earns your house 5 points in the race to the house cup. Prizes will include a chance to cut Mrs. Erni's hair to within inches of her head. Yes, JH, a chance to get her back!

The STEAM Challenge Center has been a hit with the students. Mrs. Erni plans to expand the offerings and supplies next year so more students can challenge themselves in the areas of science, technology, engineering, art, and math.

BoB semifinal battles are scheduled for May 12th for the 2-6 graders and May 3rd for the JH participants. The final battle assembly is scheduled for May 22nd.

One final note from the library: the end of a school year comes quickly in the library. All books are due by May 12th. Students will stop checking out on the 1st as their classes cycle through. Thank you for a great year in the library. Happy summer reading!
