

Weekend Review – October 15, 2016

FALL BREAK OCTOBER 20-25

Just a reminder next week is fall break and there is NO school. Teachers and staff are off contract and are NOT scheduled to work during fall break. If you email a teacher, please understand that they are OFF the clock and taking a well-deserved break, and will probably not email you back until their contract begins again on October 26. That being said, when you drive by the school there will most likely be cars in the parking lot because teachers spend their "off" hours getting ready for school to begin again. Please know, the school is locked and unavailable to students and parents. Our doors will reopen on October 26 at 8:10 am.

COMMUNITY COUNCIL MEETING

Our fall community council meeting to review the 2015-16 final report of our Trustlands goals, is Monday, October 17th at 3:15pm in the conference room. You can find the agenda on our website, http://farmington.ascentutah.org/?page_id=1208

DOUBLE VOUNTEER HOURS FOR PARKING LOT DUTY

Remember to keep track of all volunteer hours using our online tracking form http://farmington.ascentutah.org/?page_id=426

BOXTOPS

Keep sending in those Boxtops. The submission deadline is November 1st.

BOOKs...BOOKS..... AND MORE BOOKS ... FROM SUNNYD AND FRUIT₂O!

We just can't get enough books. Cut out and bring the UPC barcodes to the library by November 28th so our school can earn free books.

CHRONIC ABSENTEEISM

The Governor's office has declared more than 9 absences a year is considered "chronic absenteeism". Please do your best to make sure your students are at school each day and that appointments are scheduled after school as often as possible.
